

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMISSIONER OF COLLEGIATE EDUCATION
TELANGANA :: HYDERABAD

Present: Sri. Navin Mittal IAS

Sub: GDCs – Online Student College Fee Collection and Scholarship Accounts System –Savings Bank Account for Fee Remittance – HDFC Bank – Implementation on Pilot Basis – Committee for Feedback/ Recommendations - Reg.

The Commissionerate of Collegiate Education, the Government of Telangana has introduced ICT based initiatives for providing hassle free education to the students of the Government Degree Colleges which are located at remote location across the State of Telangana to serve the poor and needy.

The department introduced the online student fee remittance system i.e., "V-FeeHive" software of Vijaya Bank from the Academic Year 2018-19 in all the Government Degree Colleges. The Bank of Baroda, in which the Vijaya Bank is merged with, is not coming forward to provide the service as it was provided. The HDFC Bank, one of the Indian leading Banks with good number of branches in the state of Telangana, approached the CCE to provide "Qfix Fee Collection Service" with more advanced features and it is also giving a special service to maintain student scholarships which is not included in the Vijaya Bank Fee Hive software.

In this regard "HDFC Bank Qfix Fee Collection Service - Pilot Basis Implementation cum Feedback and Recommendation Committee" is constituted with the Principals of following 4 Government Degree Colleges located in Hyderabad for implementing the "HDFC Bank Qfix Fee Collection Service" on pilot basis. The members of the committee include:

1. Principal, GDC, Khairathabad

2. Principal, GDCW, Begumpet
3. Principal, GDC, Narayanguda and
4. Principal, IPGDCW, Nampally

The above committed is requested to implement the HDFC Bank Qfix Fee Collection Service Software System on pilot basis in their Colleges and give the feedback and recommendations. The same service may be extended to other colleges based on the feedback.

For this, the above mentioned Principals are permitted to open the savings bank account with HDFC Bank.
