SOCIO-ECONOMIC SURVEY AT AHMED NAGAR

Volunteers asked the villagers about the following information in socio-economic survey

- Head of the family?
- Are they giving vaccination to the children who are below 5 years old or not?
- About their education?
- Are they getting any govt schemes or not?
- The problems which they are facing in the village?

We made a note of all these problems and we tried our best to convey those problems to the Sarpanch and take some prevention measures to solve them.

Survey by volunteers

DAY – 3 (24th JANUARY 2020): - DONATE A PAD & INTERNATIONAL GIRLS DAY

This day started with yoga and meditation at 6:00 am. Volunteers have performed Pranayama – breathing techniques for 40 min. Later it was followed by an NSS song. By 9:00am we started Swachh Bharath till 12:30 pm. The next activity was followed by Apna Green Products, by an NGO this firm was established by Mrs. Aruna. They are working for menstrual hygiene. They have enlightened the volunteers regarding usage of biodegradable sanitary pads. Meanwhile, Sarpanch of Ahmed Nagar Mrs. Lalitha garu and Mr Rahul, Sadhana NGO has visited the camp. He has shared his new idea of "whistle revolution" with volunteers. In this he said that when women are in danger, if they call someone, it may take more time to get proper help instead if they blow the whistle (the person in need) others can get alerted and can reach the place at the earliest. He also encouraged students for social work. He remarked that due to social work he lost his family but instead he got many thousands of families.

Under the supervision of Mrs.Aruna from Apna Green products, volunteers have done "donate a pad" programme. In this programme, volunteers have paid Rs. 15 each and donate a bio-degradable pad to each woman in the village. They asked the villagers to use the pad and share the experience.

In the evening around 5:30 PM volunteers have started the rally on women empowerment on the occasion of International Girls Day, volunteers have revised slogans on protection and empowerment of girls.

Children, Sarpanch, Upasarpanch and ward members have come to the Kashir (centre of the village). NSS volunteers have started the programme. In this they have started with NSS Song, followed by skits on "Importance of Education for Women".

Ms.Ramya had sung song "Aaadapillanamm Anenu Aadapillanaani", villagers were more attracted by this song.

Again one more skit was done by volunteers showing the difference between an educated woman and uneducated women.

Village Women have actively participated in Bathukamma celebrations.

BADDHA KONASAN:

Baddha Konasana, Bound Angle Pose, Throne Pose, Butterfly Pose, or Cobbler's Pose, and historically called Bhadrasana, is a seated asana in hatha yoga and modern yoga as exercise. It is suitable as a meditation seat.

PADMASANA:

Lotus position or Padmasana is a cross-legged sitting meditation pose from ancient India, in which each foot is placed on the opposite thigh. It is an ancient asana in yoga, predating hatha yoga, and is widely used for meditation in Hindu, Tantra, Jain, and Buddhist traditions.

CHAKRASANA:

Chakrasana or Urdhva Dhanurasana is an asana in yoga as exercise. It is a backbend and is the first pose of the finishing sequence in Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga. It gives great flexibility to the spine. In acrobatics and gymnastics this body position is called a bridge.

VRIKSHASANA:

Vrikshasana or Tree Pose is a balancing asana. It is one of the very few standing poses in medieval hatha yoga, and remains popular in modern yoga as exercise.

VAKRASANA:

Vakrasana, Vakra means twist and in yogic language we mean twist of the spine. Vakrasana comes under the category of seated asanas. Here, the upper spice parallel to the sides of the yoga mat.

Vakrasana is considered a base pose as vakrasana variations can be derived from this pose

SALABHASAN A:

Salabhasana, Shalabhasana, Locust pose, or Grasshopper pose is a reclining back-bending asana in modern yoga as exercise. Note: Consult a doctor before
