

DEPARTMENT OF TELUGU

The Department of Telugu was established in 1971 with the conviction that the role of Language is invaluable in the progress of a society and a culture. Language is essential for fulfilling all our material and psychological needs, including our basic needs like food, shelter, and clothing. The meaningful sounds and structures that make up a language and a literature are the result of a miraculous evolution in human history.

If we understand this evolution, we understand ourselves. If we explore our linguistic roots, much of our past, thereby the human evolution, becomes comprehensible to us.

Exchange of information among human beings, whether it is through writing or speaking, happens mostly through Language. Idioms, proverbs, and songs display the traditional richness of our oral culture, while written literature reveals the depths of human passions.

Studying such a rich language and literature in a classroom in a systematic manner, helps a student to appreciate the deeper meanings of words. He/she will also be able to understand the complexity of the society around and of human life in general, which is the ultimate purpose of the study of language.

The Department of Telugu, established at the same time as the College, has been striving to expand the horizons of student minds, and towards moulding them as model citizens.
