7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Details of activities that inculcate values; necessary to render students in to responsible citizens

We must respect the National Flag and National Anthem, obey the laws of our country, protect the country's power, unity, and integrity, safeguard public property, pay our taxes honestly and promptly, protect and preserve cultural heritage sites, and protect, preserve, and improve the natural environment as citizens of India, according to the constitution. The incorporation of such pledges into the Constitution is critical for the country's growth, peace, and prosperity.

The list of basic rights and duties, as well as the Directive Principles of State Policy, are parts of the Indian Constitution that detail the states' important obligations to its inhabitants, as well as their responsibilities and rights as Indian citizens.

The Indian Constitution, which is regarded as the world's longest, consists of a Preamble, 25 Parts, 12 Schedules, 448 Articles, and 101 Amendments to date.
