Resolutions

After discussions the following resolutions were adopted.

- 1) It was resolved to adopt the syllabus and course structure under reorganized CBCS approved by Osmania University for B.A./B.Com./ B.Sc English (First Language) for the academic year 2019-20. This includes Course Structure, Course Objectives, Course Outcomes, credits, syllabus, and Instructional Hours under the reorganized CBCS. There will be 4 units and 4 credits each for I and II semesters of English for B.A./B.Com./ B.Sc (First Language).
- 2) For B.A. (Modern Language) V and VI semesters, the syllabus will be as per the existing Osmania University B.A. (Modern Language) English syllabus. It was brought to the notice that owing to the lack of strength, the college was not accorded permission to offer B A ML (Optional English) from the academic year 2018-19. So there are no students studying in BA (ML) I to IV semesters. The students who are in the B.A. M L III year (V-VI semesters) will study the existing syllabus prescribed by the university last year (2018-19).
- 3) The syllabus and question paper pattern for UG III and IV semesters (General English) will be as per the resolution taken in the last BoS meeting. The new Osmania University ratified M A English CBCS syllabus (wef. A.Y. 2019-20) will be followed for the fresh batch of students except for distribution of marks.
- 4) The question paper pattern for both UG and PG courses will be followed as per the decision taken in the college academic council meeting. The pattern is 70:30 (70- end semester examinations and 30 Internal Assessment). There will be 2 sections, namely, A and B. Section A consists of 4 questions, each question carrying 5 marks. In this section, 6 questions are given. Section 'B' consists of 4 questions carrying 12 <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> marks each. The blue print, scheme of examination submitted by the department of English was approved. Internal assessment consists of 5 multiple choice questions, 5 fill in the blanks (1 mark each) and 5 short answer questions (each question carries 2 marks).
- 5) It was resolved to approve the panel of examiners prepared by the department of English.
