ENTREPRENEURSHIP

An entrepreneur is a creator or a designer who design new ideas and business processes according to the market requirements and his/her own passion. Entrepreneurship is the art of starting a business, basically a startup company offering creative product, process or service. We can say that it is an activity full of creativity.

Entrepreneurship development is the process of improving the skills and knowledge of entrepreneurs through various training and classroom programs. Entrepreneurship development is concerned with the study of entrepreneurial behaviour, the dynamics of business set-up, development and expansion of the enterprise.

EDP is a programme meant to develop entrepreneurial abilities among the people. In other words, it refers to inculcation, development, and polishing of entrepreneurial skills into a person needed to establish and successfully run his / her enterprise. Thus, the concept of entrepreneurship development programme involves equipping a person with the required skills and knowledge needed for starting and running the enterprise.

The whole point of entrepreneurship development is to increase the number of entrepreneurs. This accelerates employment generation and economic development. Entrepreneurship is promoted to help lessen the unemployment problem, to overcome the problem of stagnation and to increase the competitiveness and growth of business and industries.

Develop and strengthen their entrepreneurial quality/motivation

The basic objectives of EDP are to:

1. Develop and strengthen entrepreneurial quality, i.e., motivation or need for achievement.
2. To analyse environmental set up relating to small industry and promoting it.
3. Removing unemployment
4. Enhancing industrial development
5. Developing industrially backward region.
6. Select project/product.
7. Formulate the project.
8. Understand the process and procedure involved in setting up small units.
9. Know the sources of help and support available for starting a small-scale industry.
10. Acquire necessary managerial skill required to run the industrial unit.

eminent personalities such as Swami Vivekananda and Mother Teresa to drive home the message that the youth should dedicate themselves for the betterment of the society and the nation.

“Modern education has taught us how to fly like a bird and swim like a fish. But it has failed to teach us to live like human beings. The increasing instances of white collar crime is cause for concern and calls for the inculcation of ethical values among professionals. The reduction in the size of families has resulted in the lack of ethical and moral guidance among professionals. So, it is important as students to inculcate moral values not only to excel in your chosen careers but also to ensure a deeply satisfying and enriching social and personal life,” she advised.

The Inspiring Story of an Old Watch and Self-worth

Before he died, a father said to his son, "here watch your grandfather gave me... it is almost years old. Before I give it to you, go to the jew store in the city. Tell them that I want to sell it, see how much they offer you."

The son went to the jewellery store, came back his father, and said; "they offered Rs.100 because it is so old."

The father said, "well, try the pawnshop."

'Governments must not ignore education, economy in fight against Covid-19'

By K.M DAYASHANKAR 24 mins ago

Karimnagar, April 23: "The global economy is experiencing a recession due to the outbreak of the Coronavirus pandemic. The impact may prove to be catastrophic on developing and the poor countries," estimated Prof Ravinder Rena, department of Economics, North West University Business School-South Africa, in an online address to students and faculty of the department of Economics at the Government Women's College in Karimnagar on Friday.

The department organised an international webinar titled 'Global Economic Slowdown During The Covid-19 Pandemic: Issues and Challenges' and invited Prof Ravinder Rena to deliver the keynote address.

"The governments should first accord priority for the safety of the people. The hospitals should be strengthened to provide proper medical care to people affected by the deadly virus, while initiating proactive measures to protect their respective economies," he advised.

"The disruption of education, especially in developing countries, which threatens to sideline girl children, is a significant challenge that needs to be attended to along with recouping and rebuilding various sectors of the economy. Summary Report

Food & Diet (07-04-2021)

Healthy Diet:

A healthy diet includes the following: Fruit, vegetables, legumes (e.g. lentils and beans), nuts and whole grains (e.g. unprocessed maize, millet, oats, wheat and brown rice). At least 400 g (i.e. five portions) of fruit and vegetables per day (2), excluding potatoes, sweet potatoes, cassava and other starchy roots.

Food & Diet Importance:

A healthy diet is essential for good health and nutrition. It protects you against many chronic non-communicable diseases, such as heart disease, diabetes and cancer. Eating a variety of foods and consuming less salt, sugars and saturated and industrially-produced trans-fats, are essential for healthy diet.

The Relationship between food and diet:

Diet refers to the total amount of food consumed by individuals; whereas nutrition is the process of utilizing food for growth, metabolism and repair of tissues. The relationship between diet and nutrition and health is 2-way; health status can be affected by nutrient deficiency and vice versa.

Benefits of Healthy Eating for Adults

- May help you live longer.
- Keeps skin, teeth, and eyes healthy.
- Supports muscles.
- Boosts immunity.
- Strengthens bones.
- Lowers risk of heart disease, type 2 diabetes, and some cancers.
- Supports healthy pregnancies and breastfeeding.
- Helps the digestive system function.

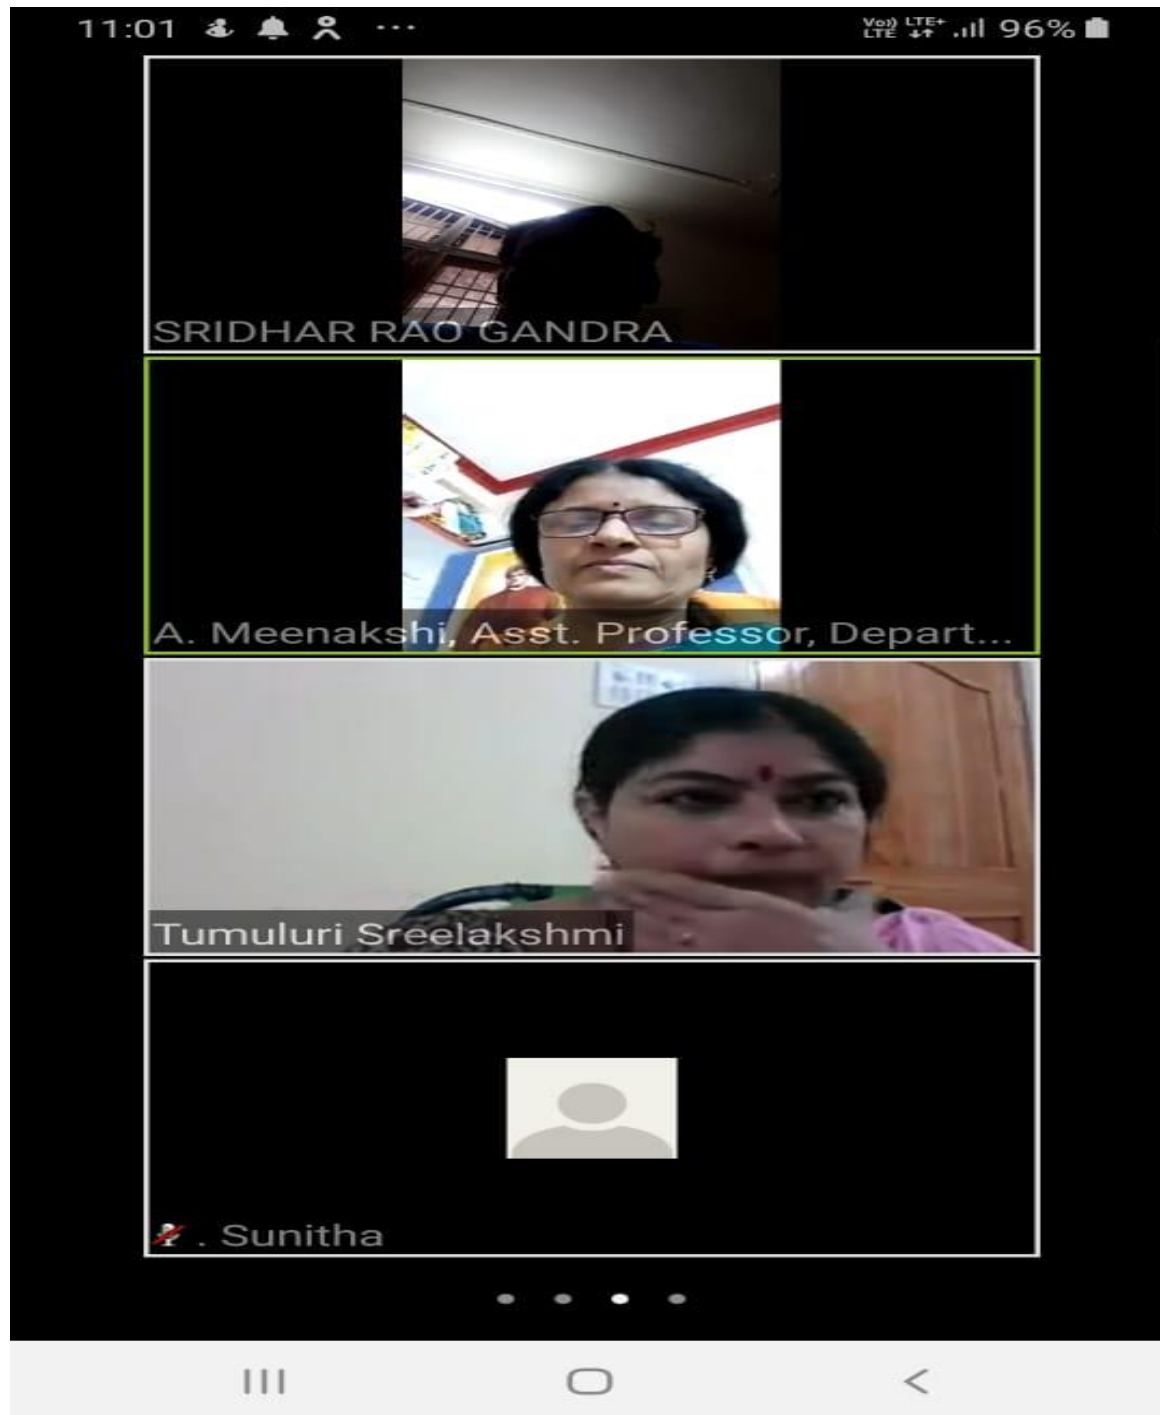

The difference between food and diet

In a nutshell, diet refers to all the food that you consume through the day, on a regular basis. Nutrition, on the other hand, refers to the fuel that your body requires to function optimally and maintain good health. It refers to the right mix of nutrients.

The conclusion of balanced diet

In conclusion, we need a healthy lifestyle to build up a healthy immune system and to avoid disease. Here, “maintain” means a healthy immune system to protect your body. To maintain body immunity, we mentioned 3-features-method before First is nutrients. We should eat a variety of food and keep a balanced diet.

WHY IS NEGOTIATION SUCH A CHALLENGE?

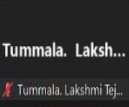

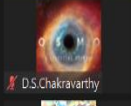

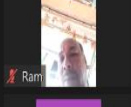

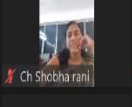

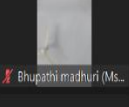

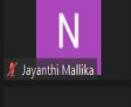

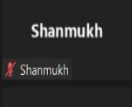

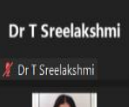

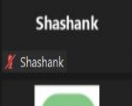

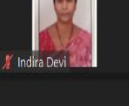

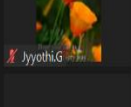

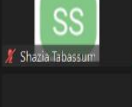

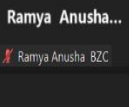

1. People are oblivious to how they come across during a negotiation, with around 57% failing to accurately guess how assertive they have been.¹

2. People enter a negotiation unprepared and without a clear idea of what they want.²

3. Negotiators only remember about 50% of what their counterpart has said.³

A Workshop on Seed balls preparation

Date 03.06.2022 &04.06.2022

A Workshop on Seedballs preparation has been organised by Department of Botany and Ecoclub on 03.06.2022

No. of students participated:40

Guest: Dr.T. Srinivas, Assistant Professor of Botany, GDC, Agrahaaram

Resource person Sunitha HOD Botany, Convenor Ecoclub

Faculty participated: R. Jyothirmai ,M. Sravanthi

The objectives of this activity were to make students learn a new method for dispersing seeds that is preparing seed balls

Students will create seedballs

Give awareness on the importance of these seedballs

To involve students in preparing Seed Balls and distribute them among the students, staff.

To distribute them to be thrown to Barren lands /unreachable areas to improve vegetation

About the Workshop

The Workshop on preparation of Seed Balls was conducted for the PG and Ug students as an initiative towards greening the environment. The increasing population is creating pressure on resources, which has resulted in many environmental problems. The forest cover is depleting and the green element of the environment is deteriorating day by day. The aim of this activity was to make the student community learn and prepare the seedballs and become a part of greening the Environment.as well as aware about the conservation methods.

students undergoing M.Sc.Botany & B.Sc.lifsciences, made 100 Seed Balls of different seeds such as Tellamaddhi,gourd, Pongamia,Mango,Cassia, etc..

Introduction-5min

away, getting eaten by birds or other animals and from drying out in the sun. Seed balls sit on top of the soil until sufficient rain comes, and then the compost and clay act as nutrients to nourish the emerging seedling. Seed balls are great for throwing out into areas with poor soil since you do not have to plant them.

Collection of seeds

Method of preparing seedballs explained to the students -15min

Activity Steps (15 min)

- 1.Students to mix assorted seeds, dry organic compost, and dry clay together in a large bin. Mist or pour a small amount of water onto the bin while continuing to mix. Spray or add just enough water so that the mixture binds together but does not stick to your hands.

Preparation 1hr

The Seed Balls were made by

Mixing

soil ,

compost and seeds.

The students were instructed by the concerned teachers about the procedure of making the Seed Balls. After making the seed balls, they were kept to dry for 24hours.

Holoenzyme = Apoenzyme + Coenzyme

- Apoenzyme is inactive
- Coenzyme assists in catalysis (not a protein)
- Holoenzyme contains apoenzyme + coenzyme (e.g., FAD), prosthetic group (e.g., heme), or metal ion (e.g., iron or copper).

General Features of Enzymes

- Most biological reactions are catalyzed by enzymes
- Most enzymes are proteins
- Highly specific (in reaction & reactants)
- Involvement of cofactor or coenzyme in some enzymes (prosthetic groups, holoenzyme, apoenzyme)
- Activity regulated through
 - Feedback inhibition
 - Regulatory proteins (e.g. calmodulin)
 - Covalent modification (e.g. phosphorylation)
