2.6. Student Performance and Learning Outcome

2.6.1. Teachers and Students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution

Response:

The programme and course outcomes are designed in such a way to bring out the best from every student, not having behind any stone unturned in putting the efforts to realize the full potential even from a very poor student. It's not just the subject that is given to the students but moral and ethical values, strong character and a complete human being.

Each course has its own outcomes prepared with utmost care, keeping in mind an average student and are displayed on the college website.

The mission statement and objectives of the college gives its own shares to the learning outcomes. The college prospectors and website communicates the learning outcomes. The principal addresses the students, the teachers' delivers in the class room, the discussion is held in parents meet, alumni meet about the learning objectives. The college annual magazine, college notice board stating the objectives, vision and mission also mentioned this

All the departments conduct a special program(meet) to discuss the outcomes and the way of attaining them. The outcomes also shared with the students through guest lectures, discussions etc. the college encourages its teachers to attend the seminars, conferences, workshops, trainings, FDPs etc to get enriches in attaining the outcomes of in the process of teaching learning

Each department files its outcomes , aiming at the vision , mission and objectives of the college. The achievements of the students are highlighted in the departmental records. The students have the awareness program on the availability of jobs after the completion of the programmes and few departments with the help of TSKC conduct job mela. Any student selected for a job as recorded.

Few departments organize work shop whenever there is a change in syllabus. The programme out comes of every subject is known by the students. Few alumni interact with the students on the special occasions and through light on the career options and the importance of the program/course. The college also hosts career guidance programmes/lectures/ skill enhancement sessions to meet the learning objectives.

The programme outcomes, course outcomes are prepared meticulously after an open discussion and debate and after assessing the merits and demerits. The outcomes bring into light the achievement of the students and list the career options available to the students after the successful completion of different programmes. An induction programme is also organised to prepare the outcomes and the ways of attaining them. These outcomes are shared with the students in orientation programme.

Teachers participate in workshops conducted on restructuring the curriculum conducted on restructuring the curriculum wherever they are organized. Few departments organize workshops on revised syllabus designed by the affiliated University. The course outcomes, programme outcomes and programme specific outcomes of all the subjects are communicated to the students.
