Lecture on Ayurveda

79

Dr. N. Bharath, Librarian has given a lecture on the topic "AYURVEDIC MEDICINE" to bring awareness among the faculty members on 04-09-2021.

Introduction: The ancient Indian Medical System ^(more than 3000 yrs old) is known as Ayurveda which rely on a natural and holistic approach to physical and mental health. It is one of the oldest medical systems in the world. Ayurvedic treatment consists of products derived from plants, animals, metal/minerals, diet, exercise and lifestyle (include massage therapy, yoga & meditation).

Ayurveda - derived from Sanskrit word 'Ayu' means 'life' and Veda means (Science/Knowledge) it means "Science of life" - based on the idea that disease is due to an imbalance or stress in a person's consciousness. It encourages for a balance between the body, mind, spirit & its environment.

Panchakarma - Ayurvedic treatment starts with an internal purification process called Panchakarmas = Vamana, Virechana, Anuvasana, Nasya & Asthapana vasthi followed by a special diet, herbal remedies, massage therapy, yoga & meditation.

Primary basis of Ayurveda = Tridoshas + Prakriti. Vaata, Pitta, Kapha are called Tridoshas ^(Life forces) and Prakriti means body's constitution. The treatment depends upon the patient's prakriti and his body's dosha/constitution, it varies patient to patient.

In Ayurveda, there are two traditions/divisions. 1) Medical - ^(General medicine) relates to only drugs/medicines during treatment. This tradition is of Charaka system/tradition - introduced by Charakudu.

- Charaka Samhita is famous medicinal and other tradition is 2) Surgical - ^{It's} originator is Dhanwanthari - called as father of Ayurveda. - in this, certain surgical procedures are applied during treatment in certain diseases.

- Susrutha was a famous surgeon of that period, he was a first plastic surgeon.

- Susrutha Samhita - famous surgical book.

- Jeevakudu - was the world's first paediatrician.

Course: 1) UG degree - B.A.M.S. -

Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine & Surgery - 5 1/2 years course (4 1/2 years + 1 year Internship which is equivalent to MBBS degree..)

2) PG degree - a) M.D. in Ayurveda. and
