The following activities are undertaken to encourage the student community to become good students at present and good citizens in future.

- Lecturers of the Department conduct classroom seminars and group discussions to students to make them feel confident because all of them are from rural background with Telugu both as their mother tongue and medium of instruction. Students are free to select the topic of their choice and speak for about 2 minutes on the selected topic.
- To improve English reading and listening skills among the students, newspaper clippings on Spoken English (like Know Your English in English daily The Hindu and Telugu daily Eenadu) and employment opportunities are taken to the classroom. One student is asked to read aloud the paper clipping and the remaining students will listen to it carefully. Doubts, if any, are clarified later.
- Lecturers motivate the students to participate in various literary and cultural competitions conducted within and outside the college with an aim to bring out their talent, to bring laurels to the college and also to shed their fear towards English.
- Apart from regular teaching-learning activity, Lecturers help the students to know more about culture, discipline, good manners, sincerity, punctuality, honesty, personality development, etc.
- Members of the Department always exhort students to be service-oriented by motivating them to enroll their names as NSS volunteers. They are taught the importance of extending help to the needy.
- While continuing their graduation in the college, students are advised to appear for various examinations and tests like APPSC Group Exams, Bank exams and the Entrance Tests conducted by various Universities for P.G admissions, so as to gain first hand experience about these tests.
