DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

DISTINCTIVENESS

The distinctiveness of the Department of English lies in its continuous efforts to excel the students in their linguistic and literary skills. As part of this objective, the department has been conducting an innovative program i.e. "Everyday English".

In "Everyday English" this department tries to develop the aspects of Vocabulary, Pronunciation, Grammar, Literature, and the authors. The salient features of this program are:

1. Everyday five questions on the above mentioned aspects are written on the board which is placed in the corridor. As part of it, a photo of an author is pasted on the board.
2. The students are encouraged to write the answers they know and their names under the answer.
3. In the afternoon session, the faculty of this department writes the correct answers.
4. The names of the students who have written correct answers will be posted in the student Whatsapp Groups.

This program is inculcating some interest towards in English among the students and they are trying to get the answers from various sources. They are able to learn English in a play way method.
