

The department of English conducted a 'Literacy Drive' in the neighbourhood. The students went and approached the parents and created awareness about education and also stressed the importance of girl child education and motivated them to send their daughters to schools and colleges and pave a way towards their bright future.

Literacy Drive

Literacy Drive

