Devarakonda fort (Description)

Devarakonda which is a small town is a tiny village situated in Elangona district. The Devarakonda village is home to one of the most astonishing forts found in Telangana. The village attracts many tourists from over the world. It was a time when the fort stood high in place flaunting the glory of the village but now

The fort was constructed in the 13th-14th century. The Devarakonda fort is the emblem of prosperity established by the kingdom of Padma Nayaka Zamula Rajas. The fort was the heart of one and slave of none, as it was ruled by Padma Nayaka Zamula Rajas since the year 1278 to 1452 AD.
