

Govt Degree College, Serilingampally, R R Dist

Department of Commerce

Best Practices for the A.Y 2021-22

Department of Commerce encourages the students to excel in their academics and all the co-curricular activities. The faculty encourages the students by giving them prizes to motivate them. Swapna Yadav student of 1 year receiving the prize for her academic excellence in semester 1 from C.Jyothi, Assistant Professor of Commerce.

Swapna Yadav receiving prize from C.Jyothi ,Assistant Professor of Commerce

The Department of Commerce encourages the students for their innovative skills and talents and motivates the students to put their best in their academic and curricular aspects. S. Ashritha and P. Jahnavi of B Com CA 2 Year receiving flower pots for their creative skills and talents on 30/04/2022

Ashritha and Jahnavi receiving their prizes for creative skills

Elements of Delegation

Authority

Responsibility

Accountability

Effective Delegation

The methods that work

Dr. B.N. Surekha presenting the books to motivate the students

Direct Materials And Indirect Materials

Materials that can be measured and charged directly to the cost of the product

Ex: Sugarcane, cotton, wood etc

Primary packing material

Import duties, octroi, dock dues etc

Indirect materials are the materials which cannot be easily identified to a specific job, contract, process or order and are ancillary to production.

Ex: sewing thread, cotton waste, glue

Field visit to Local trade fair Hasthakala at BHEL with students where all the sellers present their handicrafts all over the country

C.Jy

