A Brief History of Charminar

Qutb shahi ruler Muhammad Qutb Shah built the Charminar in 1591, after shifting his capital from Golkonda to Hyderabad. This was built to commemorate the eradication of plague. The structure itself was intended to serve as a mosque and madrasa. The structure is made of granite, limestone, mortar and pulverised marble. The Charminar has become known globally as a symbol of Hyderabad. It has been officially incorporated as the Emblem of Telangana.

A brief history of Salarjung Museum

Nawab Mir Yousuf Ali Khan Salarjung-III, Prime Minister of Hyderabad state, collected artifacts from all across the world, over a period of 35 years. After the death of Salarjung-III in 1949, the collections were left behind in his ancestral palace Diwan Deodi. The collection was formerly exhibited there as a private museum, named Salarjung Museum, which was inaugurated by Jawaharlal Nehru on Dec 16, 1951.
