

Department of Zoology
Tara Government College (A), Sangareddy
Field trip/Field work/Field study
Academic year 2021-2022

Students of department of zoology were taken to manjeera abhayaranyam which is located 9Kms from the Sangareddy town. Students studied about different fauna of the wild in their natural habitat. Ecological studies were done during this activity. Functional role of the animals were studied.

Students of the department of zoology were taken to the science museum for field study. Various extinct animal models were studied and the students gained the knowledge of these extinct animals. Various human physiology models were studied.