Introduction :-

The current era is the era of information and technology domination. Adapting to the modern requirements of this era in the field of education is a must for both teachers and students. Today every student is well acquainted with the use of smartphones and computers. If we look at the teaching of Hindi at the college level we see that Hindi is taught as a second language in degree college. Smart phones are now used by both teachers and students. The students whose mother language (Tounge) is Hindi could write in Hindi but didn't know typing. A programme to teach Hindi typing in 15 days has been started for these students.
