The consumer movement marks 15th March with World Consumer Rights Day every year, as a means of raising global awareness about consumer rights and needs. Celebrating the day is a chance to demand that the rights of all consumers are respected and protected, and to protest against market abuses and social injustices which undermine those rights.

World Consumer Rights Day was inspired by President John F Kennedy, who sent a special message to the US Congress on 15th March 1962, in which he formally addressed the issue of consumer rights. He was the first world leader to do so. The consumer movement first marked that date in 1983 and now uses the day every year to mobilise action on important issues and campaigns

Making digital marketplaces fairer

Our theme for World Consumer Rights Day 2018 was Making Digital Marketplaces Fairer.

E-commerce has transformed the way that people shop, giving consumers more choice than ever before. But it has also raised global issues that we can only tackle together. In 2017, global e-commerce sales reached $2.29 trillion, but nearly 70% of consumers worry their digital payments are unsafe. Meanwhile, half the world's population are still offline.

For World Consumer Rights Day 2018, we called for access to fair and secure internet for all, action against scams and fraud, and better consumer protection online.

Department of commerce in association with Consumer club of SR & BGNR Govt. College (Autonomous) organized the World Consumer Rights Day programme on 15-03-2018. This programme was presided over by Dr. U.Veerabaraiah, Principal of the college. Sri G.Eswar , Ret.Asst. Professor is the resource person of the programme. Venue: Room No.207

Objective:

- To create awareness towards consumer rights.

CONSUMER RIGHTS

➤ Right to Safety

This right is for the safety against goods and services that are 'hazardous to life and property'. There are many goods (like pressure cooker's safety valves, electrical equipment, medicine) which require special attention to safety.

The right requires all such products of critical nature to life and property to be carefully tested and validated before being marketed to the consumer.

➤ Right to Information

This right ensures that Information of price, manufacturer, ingredients, brand and product is mentioned on the product or its label. This information is necessary because it help the consumer in making an informed buying decision.

➤ Right to Choose

The consumer must have the right to choose between different products at competitive prices. So, the concept of a competitive market where many sellers sell similar products must be established to ensure that the consumer can actually choose what to consume and in what quantity.

➤ Right to Seek Redressal

Consumers have the right to seek redressal against unfair trade practices and exploitation. It means if any damage is done to a customer, he has the right to get compensation depending on the degree of damage.

➤ Right to Represent

Consumers get the right to redress and to demand compensation. While seeking any redress, the consumer has the right to be represented in the consumer court.

When consumers become conscious of their rights while buying goods and services, they will be able to make informed choices. The enactment of consumer protection act (COPRA) has also led to the setting up of separate departments of Consumer Affairs in central and state governments.

If consumers want their rights, they should also observe some duties :

- After purchase everyone must insist on cash memo.
- While purchasing goods everyone must be careful about the quality of goods as well as the guarantee of products and services.
- Logos and certifications like ISI, AGMARK, BSI Hallmark, etc. must be seen while purchasing.

On July 20, 2020, the Act was replaced by the Consumer Protection Act 2019 to widen the scope of consumer rights.

- The 2019 Act has also introduced the concept of an 'unfair contract.' This protects consumers from predatory contract terms that violate their rights.
- Accordingly, imposing an unreasonable condition that puts one party in a disadvantageous position is prohibited.
- Moreover, a new aspect introduced in the 2019 Act, which was not included in the repealed Act of 1986, which was, misleading online advertisements.
- Misleading advertisements include a false description or guarantee regarding a product, service, or deliberately not revealing essential information.
- The Central Consumer Protection Authority (CCPA) has the authority to act against such misleading advertisements and impose fines and penalties as it deems fit.

National Consumer Rights Day and the Consumer Act have gone a long way in protecting consumers from being cheated by manufacturers and sellers indulging in unfair trade practices. Unfair trade practices include:

- Offering spurious goods.
- Adopting deceptive practices.
- Not offering proper bills for goods or services sold.
- Refusing to take back defective goods.
- Disclosing the customer's personal information.

District Commissions shall have jurisdiction to entertain complaints where value of the goods or services paid as consideration does not exceed 50 lakh rupees.

- State Commissions shall have jurisdiction to entertain complaints where value of the goods or services paid as consideration exceeds 50 lakh rupees but does not exceed 2 crore rupees.
- National Commission shall have jurisdiction to entertain complaints where value of the goods or services paid as consideration exceeds 2 crore rupees.

It may be mentioned that the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 stipulates that every complaint shall be disposed of as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to decide the complaint within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of notice by opposite party where the complaint does not require analysis or testing of commodities and within 5 months if it requires analysis or testing of commodities.

E-Daakhil is an online portal launched by the Indian The National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) in September 2020 for facilitation of offline and online complaints relating to the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 by consumers.

The Act also provides consumers the option of filing complaint electronically. To facilitate consumers in filing their complaint online, the Central Government has set up the E-Daakhil Portal, which provides a hassle-free, speedy and inexpensive facility to consumers around the country to conveniently approach the relevant consumer forum, dispensing the need to travel and be physically present to file their grievance. E-Daakhil has many features like e-Notice, case document download link & VC hearing link, filing written response by opposite party, filing rejoinder by complainant and alerts via SMS/Email. Presently, facility of E-Daakhil is available in 544 consumer commissions, which includes the National Commission and consumer commissions in 21 states and 3 UTs. So far, more than 10,000 cases have been filed using the E-Daakhil Portal and more than 43000 users have registered on the portal.
