

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Faculty of Social Sciences is one of the most important faculties in our college offering Bachelor of Arts course and offering many subjects like Political Science, Public Administration, Economics and History and among them Department of Political Science is one of the important Department.

The Department of Political Science was established in 1973. Our Department offering course in B.A programme with various combinations via History, Economics and Political Science (HEP), History, Political Science and Public Administration (HPP), Economics, Political Science and Public Administration (EPP).

VISION

To impart quality and value based education among the students and mould them into politically enlightened and socially responsible citizens.

MISSION

To offer Knowledge of political science and understanding of national and international affairs. To equip the students with the skills to face the competitive world.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- ❖ Motivating the students to participate in different activities in the class room as well as outside the class room.
- ❖ To build up confidence among the students develop their leadership skills.
- ❖ The main objective of the department of Political Science is to develop critical thinking and understanding of democratic values among the students so that they become active and responsible citizens.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DEPARTMENT

Man is a social and political animal and Politics is an on-going process which aims at achieving the wellbeing of the individuals in the organized society. Aristotle the father of Political Science called Politics as the master science. Its scope is very vast since it covers the study of state, government, political system, power, the constitution and the laws which affect our everyday life. The subject is dynamic and interdisciplinary in nature. The Department disseminates political Knowledge among the students that will enable the students to understand the issues from local to global level.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

Additional Courses Offered by Dept. of Political Science

A Certificate Course on “Civil Liberties” was offered for the students which creates awareness about their constitutional rights and duties.

