PRESENT FACULTY MEMBER IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

- A. Raju, M.A. B. Ed.

GOALS OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Political science encompasses the study of governments, public policies and political processes, systems, and political behavior.

our discipline is rooted in the study of power and our faculty are interested in helping students understand the complexity associated with its exercise.

the study of politics fosters critical thinking, equipping students with the analytical tools to approach the fundamental problems of political life in a rigorous and systematic manner.

it is true to the holistic and integrative spirit of liberal thinking in its many connections to other disciplines and modes of inquiry.

it helps to develop a spirit of civic-mindedness and engagement with the world around us.

OBJECTIVES

Develop an understanding of the fundamental principles and theories of politics to include foundations of political community, the structure and process of government, citizenship and forms of political participation, and the public policy process.

gain an understanding and appreciation of current political issues and concerns and their impact upon the contemporary political environment.

Understand the decisions human beings make in political settings, including those regarding the forms of government available and understand the philosophical underpinnings of political systems, major ideologies, and political parties.
