MAHABUBNAGAR
DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY
BEST PRACTICE – 2022-2023
FIST FULL OF RICE

1. Title of the best Practice: “FIST FULL OF RICE”

2. Objectives:-

- To inculcate sharing habit among students for those who cannot afford even one single meal a day.
- To develop social responsibility among students, it also gives good feeling we want to be useful to society.
- Our aim is a hunger free India like Mahatma Gandhi said “Avoid purpose, the means will follow” this is the start of charity from our college.

3. The context:-

The dept. of Botany is initiated a charity program “FIST FULL OF RICE” Poverty is the major problem in India. There are many people who cannot afford a single meal in a day sharing of rice gives a feeling of happiness to ourselves. We also give money for feeding the poor, but what gives us immense satisfaction is keeping aside a handful of rice we can eradicate hunger from someone is a good feeling.

4. The practice:-

- The practice of fist full of rice implemented from the academic year 2022-2023 by the department of Botany. The department informed the affordable students & staff of NTR GDC (W) Mahabubnagar to bring fist full of rice from the homes. We have given them the tentative dates in a month, most of our students and staff brings the rice.
- We have repeated this practice twice in a year. We feel very happy showing the social responsibility and enthusiasm of students.

5. Problem encountered and resourced required:-

- The rice is a different varieties like masouri, sona masouri. Old and new rice, so it is a difficult for us to mix all the varieties.
- We have fill the gunny bags with rice .we collected 75 kg of rice in one semester and in second semester 80 kg we have put the sulphur tablet in the rice bags as precautionary measure.

6. Evidence of success:-

The departments have collected nearly 150 kg rice with the participation of students. We have donated nearly 75 kg rice to children asylum, behind government hospital which is in Mahabubnagar. And another 75 kg to Madarsa Suffa Hostel I town. PS. Mahabubnagar The department is satisfied with this best practice, this is our first step in bringing hunger free India.

It is designed in such a way where the student potential of learning be enhanced.

Teaching the principle involved in the practice is that teaching indirectly triggers the learning abilities of a person.

It also makes the student to explore his/her capabilities

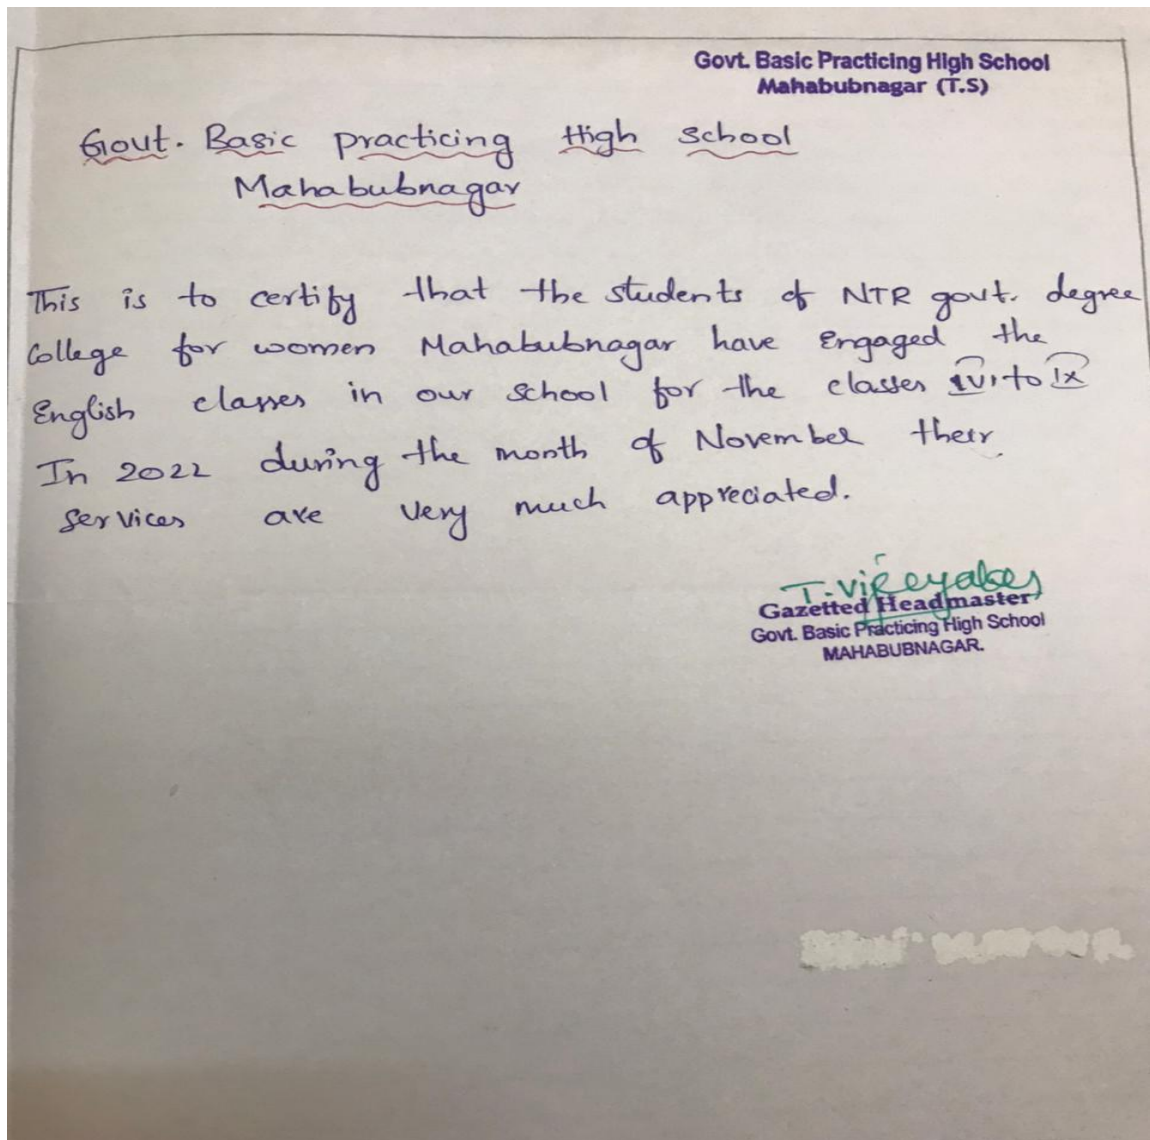

Teaching also instills self-confidence.

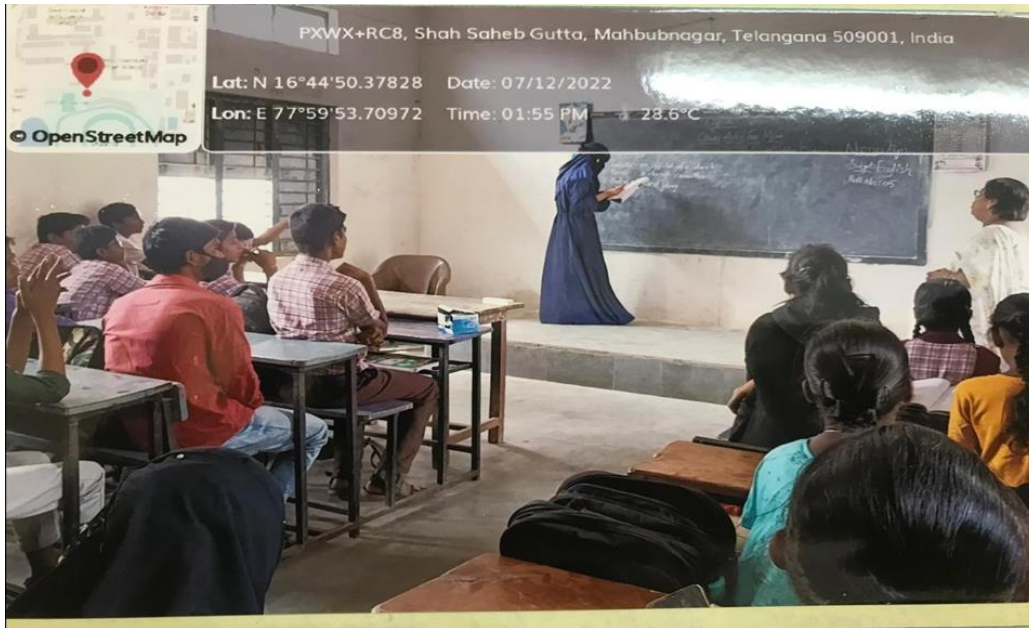

THE CONTEXT: of the objectives mentioned above the department of English has chosen the nearby T/M school named "Govt Basic Practice High School". During the academic year 2022-2023 the dept put a proposal regarding Teaching Orientation class with the head master of the said institution. Headmaster of the school has kindly given his concern to the proposed teaching practices and subsequently provided the time table to complete the schedule of Teaching Orientation.

THE PRACTICE: The faculty named S. Rajavardhan Reddy, M. Jagadeshwari, L. Abhinaya, V. Sahithi, Sudha Rani, have got engaged classes as per the schedule and have conducted the classes after orally examining them of English language skills. The selected candidates thought be away from language speaking atmosphere English language teaching has become lucid for the student generation are accustomed to use cellphones.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS: The students who have been given orientation training have achieved success in taking English classes to their fellow students like the model of self-Government Day.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED AND RESOURCES REQUIRED: The major problem in importing the English language to the Telugu medium students is non exposure to the English language in his day to day circumstances, to avoid this barriers English language videos have been taken as source for this proposed orientation.
