

76th Death Anniversary of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

February 5, 2024

Faculty of Social Sciences

The Faculty of Social Sciences at Dr. BRR Government Degree College, Jadcherla, paid heartfelt tributes to Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi on February 5, 2024. During this commemoration, Vijay Kumar P. V. S., the Head of the Department of Political Science, delivered a speech, enlightening students on how Gandhiji brought the Indian independence movement to the masses. He urged students to cultivate open-mindedness and diversify their perspectives by exploring books from various authors. Kumar recommended reading "My Experiment with Truth" by Mahatma Gandhi.

Mr. Narsoji, a lecturer in Economics, briefly delved into Mahatma's personality and encouraged students to draw inspiration from his life.

R. Nagaraju, Head of the Department of Economics, emphasized the principles of truth and nonviolence preached by Gandhiji. He advised students to incorporate these values into their lives to become well-rounded individuals. He highlighted how Gandhiji's advocacy of nonviolence influenced India's independence movement and recommended students to explore literature on the subject.

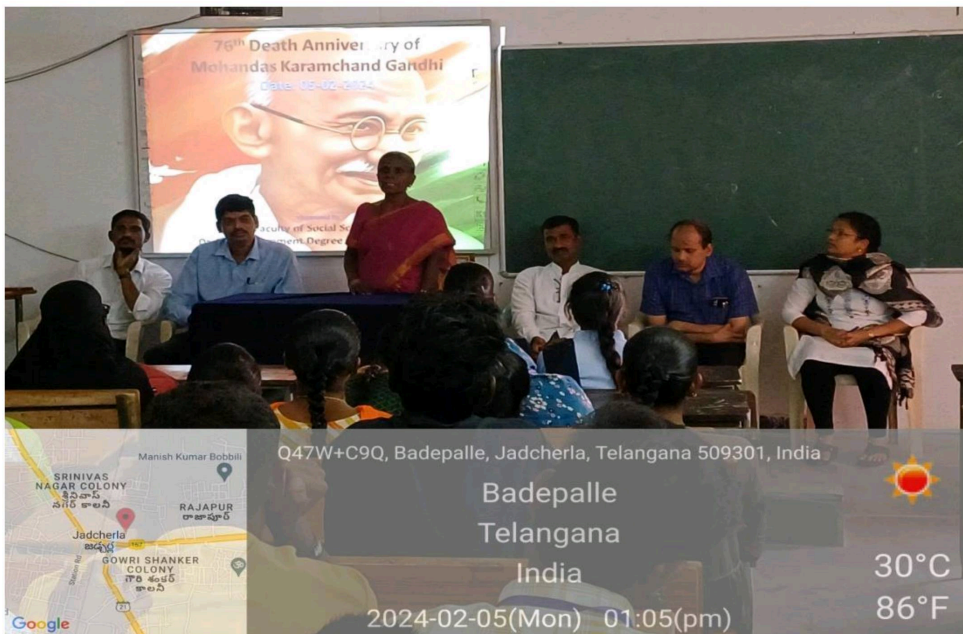

C. Beeriah, Head of the Department of History, provided a concise overview of Gandhiji's biography and his pivotal role in the Indian independence movement. He expressed concern about false propaganda circulating about Gandhiji and urged students to be vigilant against such baseless allegations. Beeriah underscored how Gandhiji's philosophy of nonviolence played a crucial role in shaping India's path to independence. He recommended reading more books about Gandhiji.

Vaishnavi, a first-year BA student, delivered a concise and informative presentation on the Gandhian era during the Indian independence movement.

Dr. Ch. Appiya Chinnamma, the Principal, advised students in her speech to embody the love and tolerance preached by Gandhiji in their lives. She reminded them of their responsibility to safeguard the hard-earned fruits of India's independence achieved by Gandhiji and numerous other leaders.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Kavitha, an assistant professor in history, expressing gratitude to all participants. Approximately 60 students actively engaged in this enlightening program.
