

B.P. Mandal's Birth anniversary

26/08/2023

Faculty of Social Sciences

The Faculty of Social Sciences at Dr BRR Government Degree College, Jadcherla, commemorated B. P. Mandal's birth anniversary on 26/08/2023 in the BA E-Class Room. Approximately 80 students actively participated in this enlightening event.

• C. Beeraiah, head of the department of history, briefly explained the biography of B. P. Mandal and gave the historical background of the Mandal commission in India. Mr. NandaKishore, a lecturer in political science, elucidated some of the crucial recommendations put forth by the Mandal Commission during his address to the students.

Vijay Kumar P. V. S., the Head of the Department of Political Science, urged students to comprehend the significance of the Mandal Commission's recommendations, emphasizing their relevance in the current scenario. Dr. Ch.Kavitha, an Assistant professor in History, offered insights into the demographic details of Backward Classes (BCs) in India.

During his speech, R. Nagaraju, the Head of the Department of Economics, elucidated the economic challenges faced by the BCs in India. He emphasized that the Mandal Commission's recommendations would undoubtedly contribute to addressing these economic issues.

Ravi, a second-year BA student, expressed his concern about the backwardness of BCs in India. Raghavendar, a second year BA student, extended gratitude to the faculty of social sciences for organizing this insightful program.

In her remarks on the program, Principal Professor Ch. Appiya Chinnamma stressed the importance of OBC reservations in India for the betterment of backward castes. She advised students to leverage such programs to gain awareness of influential personalities and their contributions to society

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Vijay Kumar P. V. S.
