

Government City College (A)
Nayapul, Hyderabad
Affiliated to Osmania University
Accredited with B⁺⁺ Grade & CGPA 2.76

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Combination		PSOs
Economics Political Science Computer Applications	PSO1	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc. and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty, and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources.
	PSO2	Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc.,
	PSO3	Understand the essential computer parts and their importance; distinguish different input and output devices and connecting peripheral devices, understand the advantages and characteristics of different mediums of data storage, can perform some simple trouble shooting, understand different of operating systems, basic programming theories, techniques and algorithms, to use the MS-Office and C - Programming
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.

Economics Political Science Geography(MOOCs)	PSO1	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc. and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty, and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources.
	PSO2	Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc.,
	PSO3	Understand theoretical and practical aspects of Geography, evaluate economic behavior inconsonance with geographical factors, gain ability to understand the socio-economic problems in geographical indicators, able to offer palatable solutions for socio-economic and geographical challenges, attain proficiency to analyze the economic decision of government and non-govt. entities that correlate with geographical factors, gain requisite knowledge to evaluate land use pattern and demographical profile, apply GIS for understanding market situation, transport problem change in weather condition, cropping pattern, and natural calamities and so on
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
	PSO1	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources
	PSO2	Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings

Economics Political Science Mass Comm & Journalism(MOOCs)	PSO3 PSO4	etc., Understand the concepts and process of communication, some basic models and theories of communication, gain basic understanding of journalism, understanding of the history of the press and electronic media in India, the present status of media in India; understand the recent trends in Indian media, hands on approach on reporting and editing for Print Media, get equipped with the knowledge on Broadcast and New Media Journalism Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
Economics Political Science Public Administration	PSO1 PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc., Understand the basic concepts, theories of an organization and functioning of public administration in diverse field; understand various levels of Indian Administration, Governance and Institutional Framework; Get familiarity with various administrative services, government services, recruitment and service matters; Will be able to critically analyze policy formulation, implementation, evaluation, challenges and interventions etc; Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.

Economics Political Science Sociology(MOOCs)	PSO1	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources
	PSO2	Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc.,
	PSO3	Understand the basic concepts of Society, Community, Association, Institution, gain knowledge on Culture, Sociological Processes and Institutions, will be able to distinguish between different Sociological Perspectives, have an over view on sociological thinkers, understand the social structure in India and various social changes and challenges for social transformation
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
Economics Psychology(MOOCs) Mass Comm & Journalism(MOOCs)	PSO1	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty, and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources.
	PSO2	Understand the dynamic field of psychology with an overview on traditional and contemporary approaches to psychology, get orientation about the biological basis of behaviour and sensory experiences , acquire knowledge on basic cognitive concepts of attention, perception, Memory, thinking, reasoning and learning, get acquainted with the concepts of motivation and understand the development of emotions, get aware of concept of Intelligence, development of tests and types of tests used to assess intelligence.
	PSO3	Understand the concepts and process of communication, some basic models and theories of communication, gain basic understanding of journalism,

	PSO4	understanding of the history of the press and electronic media in India, the present status of media in India; understand the recent trends in Indian media, hands on approach on reporting and editing for Print Media, get equipped with the knowledge on Broadcast and New Media Journalism. Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Economics Geography(MOOCs)	PSO1	Will be able to do a critic evaluation of the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc. Will get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history
	PSO2	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources.
	PSO3	Understand theoretical and practical aspects of Geography, evaluate economic behavior inconsonance with geographical factors, gain ability to understand the socio-economic problems in geographical indicators, able to offer palatable solutions for socio-economic and geographical challenges, attain proficiency to analyze the economic decision of government and non-govt. entities that correlate with geographical factors, gain requisite knowledge to evaluate land use pattern and demographical profile, apply GIS for understanding market situation, transport problem change in weather condition, cropping pattern, and natural calamities and so on
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Economics Mass Comm &	PSO1	Will be able to do a critic evaluation of the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc. Will Journalism(MOOCs)	PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate the propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources Understand the concepts and process of communication, some basic models and theories of communication, gain basic understanding of journalism, understanding of the history of the press and electronic media in India, the present status of media in India; understand the recent trends in Indian media, hands on approach on reporting and editing for Print Media, get equipped with the knowledge on Broadcast and New Media Journalism Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.

History Economics Political Science	PSO1 PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	Will be able to do a critic evaluation of the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc. Will get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history. Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources. Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc., Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think

		tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Economics Public Administration	PSO1	Will be able to do a critic evaluation of the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc. Will get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history.
	PSO2	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities, poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources
	PSO3	Understand the basic concepts, theories of an organization and functioning of public administration in diverse field; understand various levels of Indian Administration, Governance and Institutional Framework; Get familiarity with various administrative services, government services, recruitment and service matters; Will be able to critically analyze policy formulation, implementation, evaluation, challenges and interventions etc;
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Economics Sociology(MOOCs)	PSO1	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research
	PSO2	Understand the economic conditions of the nation and critically examine in comparison with the other nations. Will understand the important sectors of economy like Agricultural Sector, Industry Sector and Service Sector etc and analyze the reasons for income inequalities,

	PSO3 PSO4	poverty and unemployment. Will be able to critically evaluate, propose ideas for sustainable utilization of environmental and economic resources Understand the basic concepts of Society, Community, Association, Institution, gain knowledge on Culture, Sociological Processes and Institutions, will be able to distinguish between different Sociological Perspectives, have an over view on sociological thinkers, understand the social structure in India and various social changes and challenges for social transformation Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Political Science Geography(MOOCs)	PSO1 PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc., Understand theoretical and practical aspects of Geography, evaluate economic behavior inconsonance with geographical factors, gain ability to understand the socio-economic problems in geographical indicators, able to offer palatable solutions for socio-economic and geographical challenges, attain proficiency to analyze the economic decision of government and non-govt. entities that correlate with geographical factors, gain requisite knowledge to evaluate land use pattern and demographical profile, apply GIS for understanding market situation, transport problem change in weather condition, cropping pattern, and natural calamities and so on Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.

History Political Science Mass Comm & Journalism(MOOCs)	PSO1	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research
	PSO2	Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc.,
	PSO3	Understand the concepts and process of communication, some basic models and theories of communication, gain basic understanding of journalism, understanding of the history of the press and electronic media in India, the present status of media in India; understand the recent trends in Indian media, hands on approach on reporting and editing for Print Media, get equipped with the knowledge on Broadcast and New Media Journalism
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
	PSO1	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of

History Political Science Public Administration	PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc., Understand the basic concepts, theories of an organization and functioning of public administration in diverse field; understand various levels of Indian Administration, Governance and Institutional Framework; Get familiarity with various administrative services, government services, recruitment and service matters; Will be able to critically analyze policy formulation, implementation, evaluation, challenges and interventions etc; Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Political Science Sociology(MOOCs)	PSO1 PSO2	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research Understand the political theories related to national, international politics and public policy formulation, analyze state centre relations; Will be able to discuss major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; Develop critical thinking and inculcate research skills; Develop well-articulated presentation skills on the constitutional rights, duties and directive

	PSO3 PSO4	principles, electoral system, parliamentary proceedings etc., Understand the basic concepts of Society, Community, Association, Institution, gain knowledge on Culture, Sociological Processes and Institutions, will be able to distinguish between different Sociological Perspectives, have an over view on sociological thinkers, understand the social structure in India and various social changes and challenges for social transformation Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Psychology(MOOCs) Mass Comm & Journalism(MOOCs)	PSO1 PSO2 PSO3 PSO4	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research Understand the dynamic field of psychology with an overview on traditional and contemporary approaches to psychology, get orientation about the biological basis of behaviour and sensory experiences , acquire knowledge on basic cognitive concepts of attention, perception, Memory, thinking, reasoning and learning, get acquainted with the concepts of motivation and understand the development of emotions, get aware of concept of Intelligence, development of tests and types of tests used to assess intelligence Understand the concepts and process of communication, some basic models and theories of communication, gain basic understanding of journalism, understanding of the history of the press and electronic media in India, the present status of media in India; understand the recent trends in Indian media, hands on approach on reporting and editing for Print Media, get equipped with the knowledge on Broadcast and New Media Journalism Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think

		tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.
History Psychology(MOOCs) Public Administration	PSO1	Will be able to critically evaluate the past, the uses and abuses of the past, the role played by the past in constructing nationalisms, identities, politics etc., get acquainted with historical methods, historiography and how historians produce history, will become aware of the importance of primary and secondary sources for the writing of History, will be exposed to various methods of acquiring primary sources using libraries, archives, museums, and even oral stories, will be able to distinguish between various periodization in Indian History, students will be able to teach Social Sciences to high schools and colleges, or pursue further studies and research
	PSO2	Understand the dynamic field of psychology with an overview on traditional and contemporary approaches to psychology, get orientation about the biological basis of behaviour and sensory experiences , acquire knowledge on basic cognitive concepts of attention, perception, Memory, thinking, reasoning and learning, get acquainted with the concepts of motivation and understand the development of emotions, get aware of concept of Intelligence, development of tests and types of tests used to assess intelligence
	PSO3	Understand the basic concepts, theories of an organization and functioning of public administration in diverse field; understand various levels of Indian Administration, Governance and Institutional Framework; Get familiarity with various administrative services, government services, recruitment and service matters; Will be able to critically analyze policy formulation, implementation, evaluation, challenges and interventions etc;
	PSO4	Hone their research skills, making and testing of hypothesis, learning about collection, organization, tabulation, analysis of data through data sampling techniques, random interviews, questionnaires and participate in such research conducted by NGOs, Think tanks, Media, or Academic Institutions, Understand the Inter-disciplinary linkages and connections with which students will be able to understand, differentiate the prudent and profligate ways of resource use, learning the art of prioritizing environment over economy and move towards sustainable living.