II. STUDENT EXCHANGE:

GDCM AND GDCL agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to gain new horizons of knowledge in an already pursuing course or program of study or research.

- i. Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and host institution.
- ii. An exchange student will continue to be treated as a full-time student at his/her home institution.
- iii. An exchange student will be considered as a full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.

- iv.* The exchange student has to take examinations at his/her home institution only.
- v.* If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the "report" of the GDCM and GDCL agree to provide suitable accommodation and travelling research carried out.
- vi.* expenses for student exchange.
- vii.* The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

III. OTHER AREAS:

- i.* To exchange information on research and educational programs.
- ii.* To exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs.
- iii.* To jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- iv.* To propose and engage jointly in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- v.* The provision of cultural and intellectual enrichment opportunities for staff and students of both institutes,
- vi.* To use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period.
- vii.* To permit students and faculty members to use the library facility.

GDCM AND GDCL agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

ARTICLE 2: COORDINATION

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the program on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of GDCM, and a programme coordinator from the side of GDCL, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

ARTICLE 3: CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The institutions are not obligated to share any kind of confidential information

ARTICLE 4: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS
