Subject: Online Short Term Internship Programme of NHRC September, 2021

Dear Somesh,

The National Human Rights Commission, India regularly organizes a flagship Short Term Internship (STI) Programme for the Graduate & Post Graduate level students of different streams from all over India & particularly those who are studying Law, Social Sciences and Human Rights.

2. It is our endeavor to enrich the horizon of the students and to enable them to advance the cause of human rights across the country and abroad. In this internship programme the students get an extensive opportunity to interact with senior Government officers, domain experts, NGOs, etc. It is a matter of privilege and unparalleled learning experience for them. However, because of Covid-19 pandemic, the Commission has been organizing the Online Internship Programme since July, 2020.

3. The Online Short Term Internship Programme of NHRC is being conducted every alternate month on Cisco- Webex digital platform and accordingly, it is advertised on NHRCs website. For the period of September, 2021, the Commission has decided to hold the internship through the online mode from 1.09.2020 to 15.09.2020

4. The Commission desires adequate participation from your state in this programme. Necessary efforts be initiated to encourage the academic institutions to ensure maximum participation of the students of your state.

5. In this context, the copy of the detailed advertisement of Online Short Term Internship Programme will be mentioned on NHRC Website viz. <https://nhrc.nic.in>.

It is to be noted that all the applications are invited through online mode ONLY with a link of 'APPLY NOW' available at the NHRC website www.nhrc.nic.in and no hard copy of application or by other means is entertained.

With regards,

& Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
