Theme of the Seminar

- The Two-Day National Seminar on 'Acquiring Soft Skills for Conventional and Professional Courses' holds good in the present situation. Students in conventional and professional channels of education have adequate 'Hard Skills'. They fare well in their respective academic courses. But most of them become unemployable for want of 'Soft Skills'. Employers and educators strongly opine that young graduates from tertiary education institutions lack soft skills. Predominantly missed are communication skills. British Association for Graduate Recruiters reported that "Employers say many graduates lack 'soft skills' such as team working" and "They go on to explain that candidates are normally academically proficient but lacking in soft skills such as communication as well as verbal and numerical reasoning." (AGR, 2007). Soft skills are the need of the hour because students facing the tough competitive environment have to bring along a 'competitive edge' that distinguishes them from other candidates with similar qualifications and comparable evaluation results. In addition to knowledge and expertise, they need to have personal traits and habits.

Objective of the Seminar

- The seminar with the prime objective of equipping students at tertiary level of graduation (conventional & professional courses) proposes to throw light on the need for soft skills for personal, academic and professional excellence.

Sub-themes

- Acquisition of Soft Skills
- Approaches to Teaching Soft Skills
- Integrating Soft Skills in Formal Curriculum
- Teaching Soft Skills through Life Experiences
- Challenges with Teaching Soft Skills
- Soft Skills for Professional Development
- Soft Skills for Team Work Capability
- Soft Skills and Time Management
- Soft Skills and Conflict Management
- Soft Skills for Etiquette & Good manners
- Soft Skills and Work Ethic
- Soft Skills for Communication

Classroom instruction in the present circumstances has undergone a sea change. Teacher assumed the role of a facilitator. Public funded institutions in Telangana are competing with corporate colleges in areas of research and skill development. Students of both conventional and professional courses have adequate 'hard skills'. Now it's time for students to enrich themselves with 'soft skills'. Teachers have to create awareness among the students about the significance of soft skills. The importance of communication, collaboration, body language, social behavior, work ethics and moral values have to be imparted to students on a regular basis.

Employability is a big challenge for students in this tough competitive world. Multinational companies prefer job seekers with excellent soft skills. The Telangana government provides placement opportunities to students through TASK (Telangana Academy for Skill and Knowledge). The Department of Collegiate Education has introduced skill-oriented programmes in all colleges through TSKC (Telangana Skills and Knowledge Centre). As soft skills play a crucial role in career success of students it is mandatory for the students in government colleges to acquire a skill set along with the degree course.

Organizing a 'Two Day National Seminar' on 'Soft Skills' at GDC, Eturnagaram is commendable. The seminar will be very useful for both students and teachers. On this occasion I congratulate the Department of English for the academic endeavor.

MESSAGE

Conducting seminars and workshops is an essential academic activity related to the 'Continuous Professional Development' of teachers. They provide opportunities for teachers to interact, discuss, and present their innovative ideas on a bigger platform. Inviting academicians, intellectuals and experts for plenary talks, panel discussion, and exchange of ideas on the theme of the seminar is a rare privilege to our institution.

Communication with necessary soft skills is a major problem with students these days. Seminars on soft skills will definitely boost their morale. Students will have the right kind of exposure. They will learn how to improve their speaking skills, listening skills, social skills and employable skills by partaking in the seminar.

Government Degree College, Eturunagaram is conducting a National Seminar for the first time in the history of the institution. Really it is a moment of pride and jubilation. The seminar would not have come true without the support of the Department of Collegiate Education. I owe my sense of gratitude to the RUSA State Project Director & Commissioner of Collegiate Education Sri.Naveen Mittal IAS for accepting our seminar proposal according to permission with financial approval.

I congratulate the Department of English for coming forward with courage and confidence to conduct the Two Day National Seminar on 'Soft Skills'. I wish them good luck with great hope that the Department and the Institution will attain recognition at the national level.
