

5.1.3 English Language Lab

As per the Orders of the MG University, the MKR Degree College has established the English Language Lab to train predominantly the Tribal students of this area. The English Language Lab was being set up in a spacious accommodation with two Air Conditioners. The ELL has 30 systems equipped with headphones with LAN facility. The intension of starting the English Language Lab is to train the students in their Communication Skills and to promote Soft Skills among the students to be forefront in their career and Employment Opportunities.

LAN – The language lab system works on local area networking. The systems are connected through local area networks or audio cabling for the smooth running of the lab activities. LAN connection allows the teacher to see the computer screen of all the students and access them.

Microphones – Microphones are used with headsets by students and teachers to communicate the English learning exercises and other activities for effective learning.

Headphones – Headphones are used to listen to interactive video lectures for learning English skills content covered in digital language lab software.

Monitoring switches – It enables the teacher to listen to the voice of the students whether they are pronouncing the word or sentence incorrect accent so that she can advise them and correct them.

The syllabus we follow is:

So it has great useful to the students in this generation for their employability.

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

Students listening comprehension helps the students to speak properly and learn the language and its pronunciation. Listening comprehension encompasses the multiple processes involved in understanding and making sense of spoken language. These include recognizing speech sounds, understanding the meaning of individual words, and/or understanding the syntax of sentences in which they are presented. The listening comprehension

STUDENT READING COMPREHENSION

Comprehension is the understanding and interpretation of what is read. To be able to accurately understand written material, children need to be able to

- Decode what they read;
- Make connections between what they read and what they already know; and
- Think deeply about what they have read.

Comprehension adds meaning to what is read. Reading comprehension occurs when words on a page are not just mere words but thoughts and ideas. Comprehension makes reading enjoyable, fun, and informative. It is needed to succeed in school, work, and life in general.
