Webinar on Consumer Protection Act, 2019 – Report

CONCEPT NOTE

A webinar was conducted on 17th -02-2021 by Department of Commerce, Govt. Degree College, Bichkunda, Dist. Kamareddy, on the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. The primary objective for the same was to spread awareness on the recent issues on the consumer rights and how consumers can benefit from these laws.

OBJECTIVES

- Spreading awareness on the Consumer Protection Act, 2019
- Discussing the following questions –
 1. Who is a consumer?
 2. When can a consumer complaint be filed?
 3. Who can file a complaint?
 4. Where can a complaint be filed?
 5. Penalties under the Consumer Protection Act

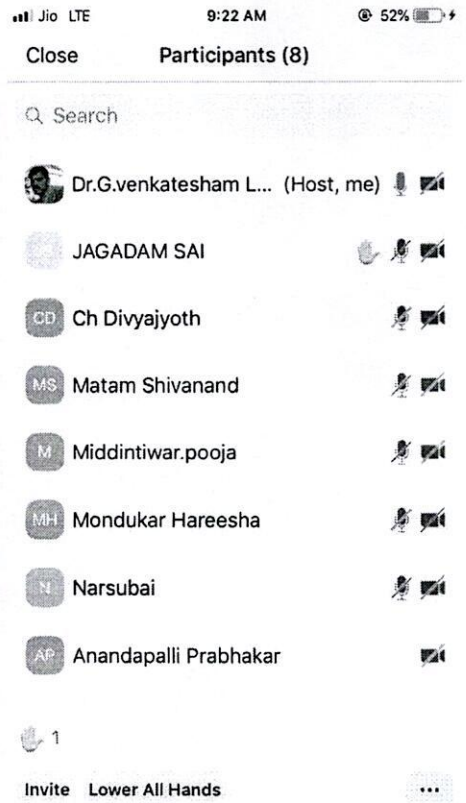

Preliminary Preparation People and organisations interested in Consumer Protection Act were invited for the webinar. Among the attendees, everyday consumers and civil society organisations working for the right of consumers were present. The aim was to engage in a discussion and enable education and awareness on how the laws can be accessed and remedies accessed.

SUGGESTIONS / FEEDBACK

Conduction of the webinar in Telugu as the language proved very helpful as we were thereby able to reach more people and communicate easily to people who may not be well versed with English. CONCLUDING REMARKS The webinar and the discussion proved very helpful and we were able to reach a lot of people and spread information on laws on consumer protection and their accessibility for the general public. Awareness of the laws is a very important keystone in ensuring its accessibility and through explaining people their rights and remedies, and also the penalties, we were able to bring a lot of people knowledge that they can easily apply in their everyday lives and be aware consumers henceforth. Webinars like these are important in today's date so that the general public can be made aware of the concerning laws that can help them in their everyday life.
