THE REPORT OF: HARDWARE AND NETWORKING

The HARDWARE NETWORKING course for the Year 2018-19 was organized by Department of COMPUTER from 06 Sep to 21 Oct for students who are studying their degree standard. There were 15 students with the speech of the principal.

The students began the day by asking questions about clarify HARDWARE NETWORKING their doubts. They had only one class for a day(1hour) for Computer awareness .To make learning more introduced computer lab

.activity/task based programs were part of the curriculum. Every student participate lab session after the lecture and using ICT(Digital board and Projector) technology for motivation of each and every student.

In this course we were created good environment in the class room and lab for the students to self motivated. Students were encouraged by the faculty, mentors to communicate with lab experimental sessin. It was seen in the students who work really worked hard and made a lot of effort to learn basics of computer knowledge, confidence and developed their overall skills.

LESSON PLANNING

Lecture1: Soft copy output, Hardcopy output.

The output device receives information from the computer and provides them to the users. The computer sends information to the output devices in the binary coded form. The output devices convert them into a form such as printed form or display on a screen, which can be used by the users. The commonly used output devices are monitor and printer. Types of outputs,

A softcopy output is an output which is not produced on a paper or some materials which can not be touched or carried for being shown to others. They are in temporary in nature and vanish after use. For e.g. output display by a monitor is a softcopy output.

Lecture2: Meaning and features of word processing

Word Processing is the process of creating text documents. It consists of creating, editing and formatting text and adding graphics in the document.....They provide facilities to create, edit, and format documents in different layouts. Using these programs, images can also be included in documents.

Lecture3: Advantages and applications of word processing.

Advantages of word processors 1) It is faster and easier than writing by hand. 2) You can store documents on your computer, which you cannot do on a typewriter. 3) You can review and rewrite your documents. 4) There are more formatting choices with a word processor (the spelling, grammar and language tools).

Lecture4 : Click Save As on the File menu.

In the Save As dialog box, replace the name in the File name box by typing Tip Top Letter . Click Save . Word creates a copy of the file, closes the original Award Letter, and changes the name in the title bar to Tip Top Letter.
ting, saving and closing a document.

Lecture5: Text and paragraph formatting.

A paragraph in Word is any text that ends with a hard return. You insert a hard return anytime you press the Enter key. Paragraph formatting lets you control the appearance of individual paragraphs. For example, you can change the alignment of text from left to center or the spacing between lines from single to double.

Lecture 6 to 15:Features of ms-excel

Add Header and Footer. MS Excel allows us to keep the header and footer in our spreadsheet document.

Find and Replace Command. ...

Password Protection. ...

Data Filtering. ...

Data Sorting. ...

Built-in formulae. ...

Create different charts (Pivot Table Report) ...

Automatically edits the result.

Lecture 15 to 25 : workbook, cell, cell pointer

The cell pointer in Excel is the active cell or the selected cell and is highlighted by a bolder rectangle. The location of the cell pointer is listed below the tool bar to the left of the formula bar. By using the arrow keys on the keyboard or pointing and clicking on the desired cell, you can move the pointer.

Lecture 25 to 30:Insertion and deletion of worksheet

To insert a single new worksheet to the right of the currently selected worksheet, click the "New Sheet" button at the right end of the spreadsheet name tabs.

Alternatively, click the "Insert" drop-down button in the "Cells" button group on the "Home" tab of the Ribbon.
