Vision and Mission:

Vision:

To produce a new generation of Computer Application Professionals by providing state of the art education recognized worldwide for excellence backed by extensive research and make them a better human being.

Departmental Mission:

The Computer Applications department aims to bridge the gap between science and technological aspects of the students coming from various academic backgrounds through innovative teaching-learning pedagogy developing computer application skills, interpersonal skills, and eagerness towards innovation and inclination towards collective achievement of the objectives through team work.

Objectives:

- ▸ Program Solving techniques.
- ▸ Principles of Programming Language.
- ▸ Design of Applications.
- ▸ Comprehension of modern principles.