

Summary

Department of Computers, Government Degree College, Luxettipet organized a webinar titled "Career Opportunities in Databases" from 10am to 11:30am on 01-07-2020 through Google meet platform.

Mr. Ch. Hari Prakash, Senior Software Developer in Synechron Technologies, Hyderabad was the resource person of the webinar and he is got hands on experience on Mongo Database.

Webinar invitation was forwarded to many whatsApp and kaizala groups. A total of 103 students and staff of various degree colleges across the state registered for the webinar. Google meet link ( <https://meet.google.com/gma-hwbn-ppq>) for joining the webinar was sent to all the registered candidates through email supplied at the time of registration.

Agenda of the webinar:

S. No	Name of the session	Time
1	Inaugural session	10am to 10:10 am
2	Technical session by the resource person	10:10am to 11:15am
3	Interaction with participants	11:15am to 11:25am
4	Valedictory session	11:25am to 11:30am

Webinar was inaugurated by Dr. Jai Kishan Ojha, Principal(FAC), Government Degree College, Luxettipet. In his inaugural speech he said that GDC Luxettipet will always try to do pioneering work as this was the first webinar conducted by any government degree college of the Mancherial district and commended the organizers for the efforts put in to organize the webinar.

After the inaugural session technical session was conducted. In this session the resource person of the webinar explained the importance of databases in day to day life, data base architecture and also explained about various databases like Oracle, DB2, Mongo etc. Technical session was concluded by 11:15am. After the conclusion of the technical session students of various colleges interacted with the resource person and clarified their doubts. After this the webinar was concluded with vote of thanks by M. Mahesh Kumar.

All the participants were sent the link for feedback form. E certificates were issued to the participants.