Alumni Association

The contribution to any educational Institute by its old students is laudable by all standards; the Govt. Degree College, Mahabubabad Old Student's Association is no exception. The College has a history of hoary & glorious past and successful eminent personalities came out of the portals of this college, who have lived and are also living all over India presently. The idea of starting an Association was initially mooted by a few local eminent people when the College celebrated its College Day in the year 2019. A formal registered Association was started in 2020 and continues to do its part in activities.

The college has an active and registered alumni association with the name of Govt. Degree College, Mahabubabad Old Students' Association with a Regd. No. 206/2020 is started and periodically meets with the principal & staff and discusses the development of the college.

The members meet on the 4th Sunday of December, every year. The meet takes note of the requirements of the college. They extend their full cooperation to the college and carry out many welfare schemes for the students at the college in the form of midday meals, endowment prizes, the institution of gold medal for toppers, etc. They actively involve any initiative taken by the college administration towards the development of infrastructural and other facilities.
