

Name of the place visited - Sri Agastheeswara Swamy Temple
 Area - Chennoor, Dist. Mancherial
 visitors - B.A I, B, III year students
 Date - 22/12/2020

Government Degree college chennoor B.A All year students visited "Sri Agastheeswara Swamy Temple" in chennoor mancherial District for a field Trip.

Temple History

Chennoor is a census town in Mancherial district of the Indian State of Telangana. Located on the bank of Godavari river. Generally Godavari flows from west to east but there is a speciality that river Godavari flows from east to west upto 15 km in this region.

The most ancient Shivalayam in this area with very old inscriptions in Dravida language. Sri Agasthya Mahamuni had installed Lord Shivalinga in that temple lord called as Sri "Agastheeswara Swamy." Agasthya Mahamuni himself performed puja in this temple, was visited by Sri Krishna Devaraya.

S.NO	Name of the Student	H.T. NO	Signature
01.	U. Rajesh	051-19-1015	U. Rajesh
02.	J. Vineeth	051-21-1022	J. Vineeth
03.	K. Uday Kiran	051-21-1014	K. Uday Kiran
04.	A. Vinodh Kumar	051-21-1001	A. Vinodh Kumar
05.	D. Tharun	051-21-1007	D. Tharun
06.	N. Sruthi	051-21-1017	N. Sruthi
07.	G. Manasa	051-21-1011	G. Manasa
08.	R. Srivalli	051-21-1026	R. Srivalli

STUDENT FEED BACK

When we visit a greatest historical place of 'Agastheshwara Swamy' temple in Chennai we should know history of temple. It is one of the oldest temple is located near the Godavari river facing the east tower. The temple appears the stone inscription it was placed by 'Sri Krishna Devaraya' king of Vijayanagara Empire. It's considered to be an authentic source of temple. There are several historical places in Chennai it is important that every student should visit and know them because they are of much Educational and historical value.