DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY

Analysis of teachers feedback on Curriculum

The department of Zoology has collected feedback on curriculum from different stakeholders like students, teachers for the academic year 2020-21 during which the syllabus for semester III and IV was changed. This was obtained through a questionnaire consisting of 10 questions. The feedback collected from the students was analysed and taken to the consideration for the enrichment of curriculum.

Feedback was collected from 20 teachers from various degree colleges, junior colleges etc. at random.

- 75% of the respondent teachers expressed that the syllabus effectively fulfills the requirement of the higher studies and competitive awareness.
- 85% of the respondents felt that it is effective for career development
- 80% of the respondents opined that the given time frame is insufficient to complete it.
- Three fourth of the respondents expressed their view to improve the infrastructural facilities of the institution no. of classrooms, furniture and especially college library in order to make it more approachable to access
- 70% of the respondents suggested incorporating the topics that have scope to impart moral education.
- Nearly 70% of the respondents opined that the topics relating to self employment skills are to be increased keeping in view of the present day needs
- 75% of the teachers satisfied that the syllabus is very much useful to improve various soft skills
- 80% of them expressed that the institution is successful in serving the needs of the the society

Finally the analysis depicts that majority of them were satisfied with the present syllabus and need to reduce the syllabus for the given time frame.
