Analysis of students feedback on Curriculum

The department of Zoology has collected feedback on curriculum from different stakeholders like students, teachers for the academic year 2020-21 during which the syllabus for semester III and IV was changed. This was obtained through a questionnaire consisting of 10 questions. The feedback collected from the students was analysed and taken to the consideration for the enrichment of curriculum.

Feedback was collected from 20 students at random.

- 60% of the students expressed that the syllabus effectively fulfills the requirement of the higher studies and competitive awareness, the rest of them opined that the syllabus is average in fulfilling the need for higher education
- 75% of the respondents felt that it is effective for career development
- 80 to 90% of the respondents were satisfied with the quality of teaching faculty
- Three fourth of the respondents expressed their view to improve the infrastructural facilities of the institution no. of classrooms, furniture and especially college library in order to make it more approachable to access
- 70% of the students suggested incorporating the topics that have scope to impart moral education.
- Nearly 70% of the respondents opined that the institution is successful in serving the needs of the the society.

Finally the analysis depicts that the syllabus is in tune with the existing need of the society and there is a need to enhance the physical facilities of the institution. Analysis report was submitted to the principal for further correspondence to enrich the curriculum.
