Urdu University of Hyderabad, Dr M Praveena Principal Tara Govt College Sangareddy and other dignitaries attended the seminar and spoke in the inaugural session.

Professor Fatima Parveen presented the Keynote address. She said that the 50% of the world population are women. The women of Telangana are contributing in various fields of the society. Many women writers and poets of Telangana contributed for the promotion of Urdu literature. There are famous short story writers like Jeelani Banu and Rafia Manzoorul Ameen. In research Dr Zeenat Sajida and Professor Syeda Jaffer contributed a lot, now many feminist writers are also coming forward to promote the Urdu literature it is high time now the women students of the colleges to contribute to the literature they should study classic literature and try to present their thoughts in the form of prose and poetry. Professor SA Shukoor said in his address that the women in Telangana are writing from four hundred years before. Mah Laqa Bai Chanda, Lutfunnisa Imtiaz, Soghra Humayun Mirza, Jeelani Banu, Rafia Manzoorul Ameen, Fatima Taaj, Professor Zeenat Sajida and Professor Rafia Sultana contributed a lot for the promotion of Urdu fiction poetry research and other areas. In the present age also many young women poets and writers are contributing in Telangana. Professor Syed Fazlullah Mukarram highlighted the contributions of women writers in Telangana he said that in the area of journalism contribution of Women is lacking and need to be addressed this area. Dr Praveena said that on the story of Jeelani Banu film producer Shiyam Benegal produced a film Narsiyah Ki Bawdi. Professor Baig Ehsas in his presidential address presented the history of contribution of women writers in Telananga. He Said that in the present age the local issues are highlighted instead of global issues . The poets and writers of small areas are getting recognition that's why in Telangana we are looking many women writers. He said the short stories of Jeelani Banu portrays the pathetic condition of Indian women. The women in Telangana portrayed the society in a good manner.
