GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE PALONCHA

Affiliated to Kakatiya University
Accredited by NAAC & ISO 9001 : 2015 certified
(Paloncha, Bhadradi Kothagudem District - Telangana - 507115)

Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities

Government Degree College, Paloncha has imbibes the core principles of secular and social inclusion and manifestation of “Unity in Diversity” since its inception. The college celebrates all religious and local festivals like Christmas, Ugadi and Ramzan in a pleasant atmosphere. All the students of the college celebrate Bathukamma festival. The college follows equality policy irrespective of caste, creed, sex, religion and gender. Many activities of the college are aimed to promote the religious tolerance among the stakeholders of the college. Since majority of the students belongs to tribal and down-trodden section of the society, scholarship committee continuously monitors and resolves the matter which is related to the scholarship process. Our college tends a good opportunity to share the knowledge of customs and traditions of tribal cults of the region. The tribes of this region have a different language dialect, which provides a unique opportunity to study the origin and evolution of those ancient languages.

The students of the college were participated in Sammakka Sarakka Jatara (Medaram Jatara), a mass congregation event of lakhs of pilgrims’ and marriage ceremony of Rama and Sita at Bhadrachalam that are in the vicinity of Paloncha. NSS volunteers conduct service oriented activities too in those occasions. Most of the students of the college belong to ST - Lambada and they celebrate special festivals like Theej. The college encourages them by participating with them. Our college students showcased their talents by participating in zone level, district level and state level folklore exhibition competitions. About 5 students of our college participated in the Eleventh Tribal Youth Festival-2019 organized by the “Nehru Yuva Kendra Sanghathan”, Haryana by Government of India. Our student T Prakash participated in RD camp of NSS. It is a matter of pride that such programs expose a wide range of such skills inherent in students and glorify the college image at National level. The college annually organizes International mother Language day and Telugu Language day to disseminate knowledge on the importance of mother language and respecting other languages. Solidarity is a top priority in our college and special arrangements are being made for it. Teachers are specially taught tribal students who are coming to the urban area for the first time to learn academic and life skills. For an effective learning process of the student the college has an ambience of healthy Teacher and Student relations to focus on each and every student. The college faculty has been successful in creating an atmosphere of equality in the students' hostels associated with the college by regular visits to the hostels.
