Holiday Policy

Introduction

Academic calendar is prepared well in advance in our college. So, all students know holidays of the college. This saves precious time of students. All students are expected to follow the academic calendar. Though academic calendar is known to students, information to students regarding holidays is informed to students and staff through notices, preferable a working day prior to the holiday.

Rationale behind the policy is to

Raison d'être

- ❖ To disseminate the list of holidays to all stakeholders.
- ❖ To save the precious time of students.

Policy

- ❖ The college follows the rules as per the holiday list announced by the Government of Telangana and any holidays declared in case of exigency by the Government of India or UGC.
- ❖ All the holidays including optional holidays and local holidays will be declared after taking the consent from the Staff Council.
- ❖ All Sundays, unless otherwise mentioned, are holidays.
- ❖ To save an academic year or any other academic purposes any holiday may be cancelled.

- ❖ All second Saturdays are holidays. If there is any deviation, it will be informed to students and staff. For instance, the second Saturday of February has been a working day in lieu of the 1 st January (compensatory) as per the orders of the Government of Telangana.
- ❖ Students and staff may voluntarily participate in any activities on the holiday of the college such as Shramadanam, Swachch Bharat, conducting commemorating events of great personalities. However, they cannot claim any compensatory holiday in lieu of working on the said days and dates. The college permits to record such activities in the record for NAAC, Academic Perform Indicators etc. subject to the condition of providing proper evidence.
