Prohibition of tobacco and other

Introducti

Youth are prone to tobacco, liquor, drugs and other harmful products. A study that was conducted in Australia revealed that prohibition of advertisements drastically reduces the number of consumers of tobacco. This policy aims to curtail stakeholders from becoming victims.

Rationale behind the policy is to

Raison d'être

- ❖ Sensitise all stakeholders against usage of tobacco and other products.
- ❖ Prohibitions of such products and any advertisements / commercials in the campus.
- ❖ Involving all stakeholders in sensitising the society and message to the society through them, and thereby serving the country.

Policy

- ❖ The college is a NO TOBACCO ZONE. Usage of tobacco, liquor, advertisements in any form is strictly prohibited.
- ❖ All ads in this regard, including posting paper ads on boundary walls, is strictly prohibited.
- ❖ Students will be given opportunity to create video clippings and other sensitisation programmes such as rallies, quizzes, seminars.
