TRAINING ON JOB SKILLS

By

Head Held High Training Centre

Trainer Ms. R. Jyothi

To the selected students of Tara Government College Sangareddy (A), the Telangana Skills and Knowledge Centre (TSKC) on 11 August 2022 arranged a training programme on job skills. The trainer was Ms. R. Jyothi from Head Held High Foundation Training Centre. Inaugural address was given by Dr. A. Venkatesham, vice-principal and Asst. Prof of Economics. He spoke about the skill gap that has been daunting many an educational institution today. Next to speak was Mr. N.V. Ramana, TSKC mentor. He informed students to make use of the facilities available at the TSKC. He also explained about the syllabus. He requested the coordinator of TSKC to speak a few words. Sri A. Vishweshwara Sharma advised the student participants to make use of the facilities and training sessions at the college. He spoke about the communication skills at work place. He invited Ms. R. Jyothi to take the session.

Ms R. Jyothi, the resource person of the session and the trainer from the head held high foundation, started her session by asking how many of the participants really wish to get job in a year. Her session included

- a. Training for job skills
- b. Major parts of job skills
- c. Where do the students get material?
- d. How to sift useful information?
- e. What are the books to be consulted?

Vote of thanks was offered by Sri Ramana, TSKC mentor.
