Her noble beliefs are reflected in her active participation in social work for art and culture, public hygiene, health care, poverty alleviation, women empowerment and education.

INSPIRING LIFE LESSONS FROM ~ SUDHA MURTY

* "If you try to please everyone, you will please no one. It's impossible to lead your life for other's happiness."

* "Usually, people who are sensitive need more time to understand the real world."

* "Money is one thing which rarely unites and mostly divides people."

* "I realised then that only diseases and not honesty & integrity are passed down to the next generation through genes."

* "A fire cannot be extinguished with another fire. It is only water that can make a difference."

* "You may be rich enough to buy comfort & luxuries, but the same money doesn't define class or give you the ability to purchase it."

* "You should not be so sensitive. Sensitive people suffer a lot in life."

* "A cuckoo should never dance and a peacock should not try to sing! (Acknowledge all the troubles and failures in our lives)"

* "We can give our children only two things in life which are essential. Strong roots and powerful wings. Then they may fly anywhere and live independently."

* "When someone gets cheated, that person gets upset not because they have lost money but because he or she realises that they have been foolish enough to be tricked."

* "Men can do certain things well and women other things. Men and women are complementary to each other. One need not prove one's strength."

* "With my experience in life, I want to tell you that having good relationships, compassion & peace of mind is much more important than achievements, awards, degrees or money."

* "Rich or poor, it is good to do our own work and be fit."

* "Life is an exam where the syllabus is unknown and question papers are not set. Nor are there model answer papers."

"Done very well" Keep it up.

— Sudha Murthy.
