Details of Best and Innovative Practices of the Department of Commerce and Business Management

The Department of Commerce and Business Management has been practicing following Best & Innovative practices that have been bringing immediate positive impact on students pass percentage as well as their employability. These practices have been designing by inviting the innovative pedagogues of various faculty members of our college in general and CCE-Hyderabad initiations at particular. They are also redefined, redesigned and updated periodically and continuously as per the requirement and necessity of the students as well as market potential. Hence these practices can be briefly listed as under.

The Department of Commerce and Business Management has the continuous practice of encouraging the faculty to infuse with research culture. Promotion of faculty to participate in extension activities, seminars and workshops is another regular practice observed in the department. Department has also introduced couple of sign boards in front of the department staff room to update students with current issues, trends and developments in Stock Markets, Business, Commerce, Trade and day to day contemporary issues.

It is worthy to say that the department in collaboration with department of English is organizing spoken English classes at free of cost for all the students twice in a week. With these initiations and practices, the department has been marching for excellence and expertise in all student entered activities which make them equip with the updates of higher education in one hand and moulding the students for tomorrow's competitive world on the another hand. Department regularly invites experts in the field of Banking, Industry, Business, and Insurance to make their effective presentations to the students and to motive them for good strides in all walks of their academic as well as in their career progression. Organization of blessing ceremony for all Commerce third year students in the month of March is another best practice of the department. Through this program students will be motivated personally, psychologically, spiritually and emotionally to shape their future avenues in right way and to write their final examinations effectively. Presentations of proficiency awards and felicitating women staff by students and staff on international women's day are regular activities of the department every year. In addition to above following are other best practices of the department.

Another well appreciated and applauded best practice of the department is publication of students hand book. Including all the departmental activities of the previous year, semester wise syllabus, question papers blue print & models, structure & credits of the each course and Program and various other needy particulars of courses and Programs have been contents of this hand book.

For the Academic Year 2020-21 academic year, honourable CCE has released this hand book at RUSA building during our GB meeting. Following are couple of photographs of the same.
