

BEST PRACTICES

- Air purifying plants – 14 Snake Plants (Dracaena trifasciata) were donated by Department Of Botany to reduce the toxic gases near the laboratories so that the staff and students can breathe in fresh air, as they also minimize cancer – causing pollutants, including CO₂, benzene, formaldehyde, xylene and toluene.

