DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

BEST PRACTICES

The few best practices that are regularly followed by the department are:

- To encourage students to participate in student centric methods of teaching such as student seminars, group discussions, etc. which help to improve their skills
- Providing free study material to all the students.
- Providing financial assistance to the needy and meritorious students.
- Commerce club has been started by the department to encourage students to take up college activities like annual day, freshers' day, etc and also to increase financial literacy among the students.
