

Department of Zoology

Innovation/ Best Practices

The department of Zoology conducts “Know your animal kingdom” programme every year. In this programme, the department museum specimens are displayed for the students of the college or to school children. The museum specimens displayed will give knowledge to the students and improves scientific temperament among the students. This programme is mainly intended for the non-zoology students.

