Group Dance:

Especially, the group dance which was performed by the outgoing students was tremendously well. It really created energy. The principal and staff members too joined in the group dance. They danced with the students. While the faculty and the outgoing students were dancing on the stage, the UG I & II students dance down the stage. The group dance was the highlighting of the programme.

Conclusion:

The dance and group dance created beauty of colour and joy to the farewell party. The students got delightment and enjoyment with this and got back to the homes with complete happiness and joy.
