The Inspiring Story of an Old Watch and Self-worth

Before he died, a father said to his son, "here watch your grandfather gave me... it is almost years old. Before I give it to you, go to the jew store in the city. Tell them that I want to sell it, see how much they offer you."

The son went to the jewellery store, came back to his father, and said; "they offered Rs.100 because it is so old."

The father said, "well, try the pawnshop."

eminent personalities such as Swami Vivekananda and Mother Teresa to drive home the message that the youth should dedicate themselves for the betterment of the society and the nation.

“Modern education has taught us how to fly like a bird and swim like a fish. But it has failed to teach us to live like human beings. The increasing instances of white collar crime is cause for concern and calls for the inculcation of ethical values among professionals. The reduction in the size of families has resulted in the lack of ethical and moral guidance among professionals. So, it is important as students to inculcate moral values not only to excel in your chosen careers but also to ensure a deeply satisfying and enriching social and personal life,” she advised.
