Floral rangoli as a part of the Creative Rangoli Programme was organized by the Dept of Botany on 27.10.2017. As a part of this, students from Life Sciences participated in flower rangoli and arranged flowers in different patterns. Prizes are distributed after judgment.

Science Rangoli Competition on 02/11/2021

To create scientific temper and awareness among students about science diagrams Science rangoli was conducted for all science students by science departments.

Many students participated in this program and drew rangoli depicting science diagrams

Students came up with science concepts and presented in a fabulous way.
