NAGARKURNOOL

Vision:

All women have choice and opportunity to live their lives in dignity with equal access to economic and social opportunities and freedom from violence.

Mission:

We empower women at all levels to develop the natural abilities to their fullest potential and equip them to excel all spheres of society.

The objectives of the Women Empowerment Cell:

- To ensure equal right to women, to make them confident, freely live their life with self respect and self dignity.
- Self- empowerment through individual action, mutual empowerment that is interpersonal, and social empowerment in the outcomes of social action.
- To ensure the safety and security of the girl students and to have a transparent platform for the students to vent their grievances. The students are encouraged constantly to express their genuine problems especially related to sexual harassment at work place and drop them in the Internal Committee Complaint box for redressed.
- To closely follow the public interest information released by the National commission for Women and sensitizes students..
- Any incident of domestic violence or crimes against women reported by students will be seriously taken up by the college with the aim of providing justice and protecting the rights of women.

The women empowerment cell established SHE LEADS in the college and to empower the girl students from all the angles.
