

A. Horticulture Management

- Department of botany has taken up Horticulture management as one of the Best practice every year to inculcate knowledge and management of horticulture methods in the students by sending them to various horticulture places.
- This type of practice is very useful in integrated forming.

